FIRST EDITION.

TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

THE CAPITAL.

The Congressional Session--Financial Matters--The Surratt Case--Personal--Heavy Postoffice Defalcation.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, September 19, 1868.

SUPERVISORS.

General Schenck had another lengthy interview with Mr. Rollins last night, in which the appointees for Supervisors were inquired about and concessions to Secretary McCulloch agreed upon.

CONGRESS.

Mr. Colfax's health has been greatly improved by his western trip. He says that Congress must meet, and after a call of the House, if no quorum be present, the body must sit until sufficient absentees are brought in by the Sergeant-at-Arms, when the first business will be regarding a recess or an adjournment until December. Mr. Wade will apply this rule in the Senate.

Most of the Republican members of the House favor a prolongation of the recess until the fifteenth of October, without the transaction of any important business at this session.

Senators Wilson, Cameron, Sherman, Fessenden, Conkling and others arrived here to-day, making thirty Senators in all now here, four less than a quorum. There are already a large number of Representatives here.

SPEECH OF JOSH. HOLDEN.

The following dispatch has been received here:

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 19. To Hon. J. L. Tullock, Secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee: The associated press dispatch in relation to my speech to the Republican mass meetings here is false. I made none of the assertions attributed to me, nor did any one else.

JOSH. W. HOLDEN,
Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 18th.

EXPELLED COLORED MEMBERS.

The colored members expelled from the Georgia Legislature have formed themselves into an association called the "Civil and Political Rights Association," and have issued a call for a State Convention of colored citizens to be held in Macon the first Tuesday in October.

JEFF DAVIS' TRIAL.

Attorney General Evarts is now about to arrange matters for the trial of Jeff Davis in November. If the trial cannot take place at that time, he thinks the case should be dismissed.

TREASURY STATEMENT.

The National Bank currency issued during the week amounted to $91,500; total to date, $309,790,376, mutilated bills returned, $9,133,020; insolvent bank notes redeemed, $808,329; actual circulation at this date, $2,99,849,027.

The receipts of fractional currency for the week ending to day were $842,500; shipments of United States notes to Assistant Treasurer at St. Louis, $100,000; to Assistant Treasurer at New York, $100,000; to United States Depository at Chicago, $60,000; to United States Depository at Cincinnati, $50,000; to National Banks, $1,87,529; total, $497,429.

The fractional currency shipments were as follows; To Assistant Treasurer at Philadelphia, $50,000; to United States Depository at Cincinnati, $50,000; National Banks, $385,631.

The Treasurer of the United States holds in trust for National Banks as security for circulating notes, $341,921,700; and for public deposits $38,052,250.

PERSONAL.

A suit has been entered by H. Moorhead against Dr. Cornelius Boyle, formerly of this city, charging the latter with the imprisonment of Mrs. Moorhead for three years, thus preventing her return to the care and society of her husband. Damages are laid at $35,000. Boyle avers that as Provost Marshal in Virginia, in the Confederate service, he, by order of Gen. Beauregard, prevented her from crossing and recrossing the lines.

Mr. A. H. Stephens left here to-day, after a brief interview with the President. All of the Cabinet officers are here except Secretary Browning.

General Costa, the Colombian Minister, accompanied by the Secretary of Legation, Mr. Cortes, were presented to the President to-day by the Secretary of State. The usual formal diplomatic speeches were made on the occasion.

General Kilpatrick has arrived here. He is to be serenaded to-night, and will make a speech.

The President thinks he will start for New York on Monday next.

THE SURRATT CASE.

It is said about the court house to-day that no attempt will be made to try Surratt on the first murder indictment, and the trial on the rebellion indictment will certainly be commenced on Monday morning. As yet none of the foreign witnesses have arrived, but the witnesses residing in the city and vicinity have all been summoned. Some seem to think it impossible that the trial will be a very short one.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20, 1868.

THE CONGRESSIONAL SESSION.

Members of Congress continue to arrive by every train. About eighteen Senators and fifty members of the House are in the city. The indications are that at to-morrow noon there will be a quorum in each branch of Congress. Members now here include some representatives from the most distant Western, Southern and Eastern States.

SURRATT CASE.

The trial of John H. Surratt, on the second indictment, charging him with conspiracy to capture President Lincoln, &c., will commence to-morrow. The District Attorney will enter a nolle prosequi on the first indictment, which charges him with murder. This contemplated action on the part of the District Attorney is owing partly to the difference of opinion on the subject of constructive presence, which is an essential particular of a trial under the first indictment. There is no indication of circumstances which will further delay a second trial of the prisoner.

HEAVY POSTOFFICE DEFALCATION.

Information, which has come to the knowledge of the Postoffice Department since yesterday afternoon, leads to the suspicion that a heavy defalcation has been committed by Col. E. B. Olmstead, Disbursing Clerk and Superintendent of the building. Olmstead left the city yesterday, and the manner of his departure and his actions just before leaving caused suspicion. His financial affairs will be examined into to-morrow. Efforts for his arrest have thus far been unsuccessful. It is understood he has been engaged in heavy speculations.

A committee was appointed to remonstrate with them and explain the great benefits to accrue to workingmen generally through a reduction of the hours of manual labor.

FROM PANAMA.

The steamship Arizona arrived from Aspinwall on 12th inst., with $330,000 in treasure. Affairs at Panama remained unsettled. Generals Grita and Mulis were disturbing the Government by opposing elections in the interior, and President Carreoss had dispatched some troops to the scene of difficulty. Several revolutionary characters had been banished, and the Government was strenuously exerting itself to restore tranquility. Ex-President Diaz and his Secretary, Bermudezi, had returned from their banishment to San Francisco, and remained in Panama by permission of the Government. In a squall at Aspinwall on the 8th, the American brig Rolling Wave was struck by lightning and suffered some damage. Captain Hall has ascertained definitely the circumstances of the death of the last two survivors of Sir John Franklin's party. Captain Crozier, and a steward of one of the vessels, died in 1864, near Southampton Island. Captain Crozier's watch and other relics are now in Dr. Hall's possession, and he was to start in February or March last with an armed party of natives and Europeans to secure some records left by Franklin's men in King William's Land.

His remains go home to-morrow morning by Adams express.

KENTUCKY.

Organization to Resist the United States Officers--A Marshal Seized and Threatened.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 29.—On Thursday last U. S. Marshal Merriweather, accompanied by fifty U. S. soldiers, under the command of Lieut. Drury, left Louisville to protect the Marshal and his deputies in the execution of processes in Nelson and Larue counties. On arriving at Howard's Mills, on Rolling Fork, which forms the boundary of Nelson and Larue counties, the soldiers went into camp. Mr. Howard, who resides at the mills, invited Marshal Merriweather to his house to supper. He accepted the invitation, but had not finished his supper before three men entered the house with pistols in hand and demanded his surrender. Being unarmed he complied. They then proceeded with him towards the woods, threatening to make short work of him. When they got there, however, Mr. Howard overtook the party and told them they should not hurt the Marshal. Mr. Howard then accompanied the Marshal to camp, where the soldiers were. After arresting Charles Howard, Mr. Holt and James Mahoney, the parties charged with assisting in outrages upon Deputy Marshals some weeks since, and executing several summons in debt against persons in that neighborhood, they returned to Louisville. There is beyond doubt a regular organization in Larue, Nelson and Marion counties to prevent the execution of any process from United States Courts. It numbers from two hundred to three hundred men.

CINCINNATI.

The Prize Ring--McCoole vs. Heenan--Buckeye Racing Club--Accident to Tug Boat Tigress.

Walter Brown--His Recent Race with Coulter--A Challenge.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—It having been stated that the course over which Brown and Coulter rowed at Pittsburgh recently was not full five miles, and that Brown had no right to the claim of making the fastest time on record, Brown is out in a card today offering to wager that he can beat even the time made in the race, 34 minutes 28½ seconds, or he will row any man in the world for any amount of money.

Terrible Explosion of a Cartridge Factory.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A special from Metz, France, last evening, says: On a closer examination of the ruins of the cartridge factory, and an official investigation as to the number of persons employed in the works lead to the still more sorrowful conclusion that forty-six persons were killed and one hundred and ten very badly wounded by the explosion which occurred this morning.

Alabama Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTGOMERY, September 19.—The Legislature did nothing of importance to-day. The time of the Senate was consumed in making political speeches.

—A New Orleans dispatch says that at the instance of prominent Democrats, Governor Warmouth has appointed Geo. A. Fosdick, Vice President of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce, to be a member of the State Board of Registration, the other two members being Republicans. It being understood that the same rule would be carried out in the appointment of local Boards, at a meeting of the State Board, on the 17th inst., a majority of the Board decided they would not, under any circumstances whatever, permit a Democrat to be placed on any Board of supervision. Mr. Fosdick presented a protest against this action, but the chairman and one member, constituting a majority, refused to recede from their position. Governor Warmouth states he does not approve of the action of the Board of Registration, but has no control over it.

SPIRIT OF THE SOUTHERN DEMOCRATIC PRESS.

Rebel Illustration of Scenes When Seymour is Elected.

[From the Independent Monitor, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, September 1, 1868.]

A Prospective Scene in the City of Oaks, 4th of March, 1869.

"Hang, curs, hang! * * * * Their complexion is perfect gallows. Stand fast, good fate, to their hanging! * * * * If they be not born to be hanged, our case is miserable."

The above cut represents the fate in store for those great pests of Southern society—the carpet-bagger and scalawag—if found in Dixie's land after the break of day on the 4th of March next.

The genus carpet-bagger is a man with a lank head of dry hair, a lank stomach and long legs, club knees and splay feet, dried legs and lank jaws, with eyes like a fish and mouth like a shark. Add to this a habit of sneaking and dodging about in unknown places—habiting with negroes in dark dens and back streets—a look like a hound and the smell of a polecat.

Words are wanting to do full justice to the genus scalawag. He is a cur with a contracted head, downward look, slinking and uneasy gait; sleeps in the woods, like old Crossland, at the bare idea of a Ku-Klux raid.

Our scalawag is the local leper of the community. Unlike the carpet-bagger, he is a native, which is so much the worse. Once he was respected in his circle; his head was level, and he would look his neighbor in the face. Now, possessed of the itch of office and the salt rheum of Radicalism, he is a mangy dog, slinking through the alleys, hunting the Governor's office, defiling, with tobacco juice, the steps of the Capitol, stretching his lazy carcass in the sun on the square, or the benches of the Mayor's Court.

He waiteth for the troubling of the political waters, to the end that he may step in and be healed of the itch by the ointment of office. For office he "bums," as a toper "bums" for the satisfying dram. For office, yet in prospective, he hath bartered respectability; hath abandonded business and ceased to labor with his hands, but employs his feet kicking out boot-heels against lamp-post and corner-curb, while discussing the question of office.

It requires no seer to fortell the inevitable events that are to result from the coming fall election throughout the Southern States.

The unprecedented action is moving onward with the swiftness of a velocipede, with the violence of a tornado, and with the crash of an avalanche, sweeping negroism from the face of the earth.

Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of Alabama who have recently become squatter-sovereigns, carpet-bags in hand, and they filled with dirty electioneering doruments! And twenty times woe to those so-called Southrons who have turned their narrow heads, infinitesimal hearts and filthy hands against the land of their nativity!

Hereafter, when future generations shall contemplate the fate that these white-skinned wretches had in store for us, they will wonder at the extraordinary degree of forbearance manifested by us of the present dark day.

But the happy day of reckoning with these white-cuticle scoundrels approacheth rapidly. Each and every one who has so unblushingly essayed to lower the Caucassian to a degree even below the African race, will be regarded as hotis sui generis, and be dealt with accordingly, if found hereabout when the time is ripe for action.

The carpet-bagger already begins to sniff the coming ill-wind, and is sneaking out of the country a la Harrington, of Mobile. But we hope some boreal stragglers may be left far from their "hums," to swing alongside of their meridianal coadjutors in infamy.

We candidly believe that the picture given to our readers ut supra, correctly represents the attitude and altitude of all foreign and domestic foes of our land who shall have the folly to remain "down South" after the ides of March. The contract for hanging will be given to the negro, who, having mounted the carpet-bagger and scalawag on the mule that he didn't draw at the elections, will tie them to a limb, and leading the said mule from under them, over the forty acres of ground that he also didn't get, will leave the vagabonds high in mid air, a feast for anthropophagous vermin.

P. S.—It will be seen that there is room left on the limb for the suspension of any bad Grant negro who may be found at the propitious moment.

Departure of the Blue-Bellies--That Is, United States Soldiers.

[From the Independent Monitor, Tuskaloosa, Alabama, September 1, 1868.]

DULL.

Our town has, ever since the departure of the "blue-bellies," presented a most dull and forlorn appearance. Those fellows kept us somewhat alive, by their many acts of invasion upon our rights; and so much were the bumps of combativeness of our people kept swelled by their flagrant outrages and atrocious insults, that scarcely a day passed when it could be truly said, "there's nobody hurt." Now, the angry passion seem to have subsided.

Five Murders Boasted o.

[From the Independent Monitor, Tuskaloosa Ala., September 1, 1868.]

Five notorious bad negroes were found swinging by the neck to limbs in the woods of Colbert county, a few days since. They had been guilty of making threats against the whites.

Cheering News.

From the Huntsville (Ala.) Independent, September 5th, 1868.]

Gen. L. P. Walker, who has spent several months in New York State and Pennsylvania, returned home yesterday morning, and brings home most encouraging news. He is confident of the success of the Democrat ic tieket—that the North is completely revolutionized, and the defenders of freedo aroused as they never were before.

Pleasing Attentions to Emigrants.

[From the Independent Monitor, Tuskaloosa, Ala., September 1, 1868.]

Scallawag Cloud, of Montgomery, and carpetbagger Lakin, of Nowhere, arrived here on Thursday. Cloud, the Radical Jockey, comes as trainer of Lakin, the negro-loving jackass. The one is a long, slim creature of the natrtr kind; the other is a stout, pussy reptile of the genius batrachia. Both would make first rate hemp-stretchers. For further information, they may regard the wood-cut elsewhere. Next week we will give a more elaborate description of the varmints. We would not take a good deal for this fresh game.

LATER.—On Friday afternoon, Lakin incontinently departed by way of the Huntsville road. On Saturday morning, Cloud also "made tracks" in the direction of Montgomery. It seems that these fellows had come here to take formal possession of the University premises. Professor Wyman, however, who is the real President of the institution, so far objected to their imprudent procedure as to positively refuse to give up the keys. The two pretenders then opened their peepers as big as saucers, in wonder, and were sorely perplexed. We think Professor Wyman did exactly right in pursuing this bold course, for he has thus saved the University from the everlasting stigma of having once been polluted by the obnoxious presence of a nigger-worshiping faculty, and of black and white-spotted alumni.

AN AUCTION SONG.

BY EX-GOV. GREINER, OF OHIO.

TUNE—The Bony Bold Baker.

O have you heard the good news from Maine?
Fal de ra ral de ral raddy;
TWENTY-TWO THOUSAND Republican gain;

Into their ho'es the Copperheads crawl,
And thick and fast the Butt nuts fall,
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

An auction! auction! come without fail,
The Copperhead party I'll offer for sale—
I'll sell it afoot as its running around
As cheap as bull beef at a penny a pound,
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

How much for Seymour? What for Blair?
GOING DOG CHEAP! Who bids for the pair?
Going! Going! Can't dwell for manners,
Only fit to send to the Tanners!
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

The tanners, men of excellent sense,
Will hang their hides upon the fence,
Hides of Seymour and Blair, remember,
To be well tanned by next November,
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

Who bids for Morgan? who often lurks
Instead of fighting—and never works;
Fighting or working—those seeing the fun
At Cumberland Gap! will swear he CAN RUN,
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

This Morgan's hide is a spongy and fat,
There's danger it may ruin the vat;
Already his nide in a pickle is in,
The tanners—you bet—will tan his DOG SKIN,
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

Ulysses the tanner's—the best of good boys,
CRACKING OF BUTTERNUTS much he enjoys,
Front of his tan-y-rd—signs and banners,
Show Grant and Colfax—are the Tanners,
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

Ladies if you've unhappily wed
With butternut, rebel, or, copperhead,
Find all your pleading and coaxing vain,
Pack up his trunk and ship him to Mai e,
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

Zanesvillians, a Guest, from CHEESEDOM'S here,
Whom Rebels dread and Copperheads fear,
Soldier, Statesman—a sword and shield,
In golden letters here's General Garfield,
With a yip, fal de ral raddy.

—Zanesville Courier.

STOP THAT KNOCKING.

CAMPAIGN SONG, SUNG BY THE ALLEGHENY GLEE CLUB.

For eight long years the Democrats
Have been out in the cold;
And now they're knocking at the White House door
As they did in days of old;
But the time's gone by when Rebels
With their fingers stained with gore,
Can get possession of the White House,
So there's no use knocking at the door.
Stop that knocking, &c.

You all have heard of Seymour!
He's of New York City fame;
He's a Democrat, or Copperhead which means about the same.
He's had his eye upon the White House
For four long years or more;
But there's no use trying, for he can't come in;
And there's no use knocking at the door.
Stop that knocking, &c.

Four years ago the Copperheads
Sought the old White House to gain,
By bringing out a soldier,
For he was alone fit to resign.
But their tune has changed, for now they say
That a statesman like Seymour
Is the only man that's fit to rule,
And they've set him knocking at the door.
Stop that knocking, &c.

The people say that Grant's the man
The White House chair to fill:
They said it down in old Vermont
And they said it with a will.
And now we've heard it echoed,
From Maine's rough rocky shore,
That Grant's the man the people want
To come in and shut the door.
(CHORUS)—Come in General, &c.
(RESPONSE)—I'm a coming, &c,

—A workman in a saw mill in Toledo, Ohio, on Monday, got caught in a saw which was in full motion, and his arm was severed at the elbow and his right leg was cut off above the knee. He died very soon from his injuries.

—"I buy two cravats which last me a whole year," said the famous Sebastian Bach, "a black one and a white one. In about six months the one does duty for the other. The black by constant use becomes rather white and the white turns very black."

—There is but one nobleman with a title in Norway. Years ago all titles were abolished. That is, the possessors of them could keep them, but their children could not inherit them; so the old generation is now all dead but one, and he lives at Christiania much beloved.

—Queen Victoria was much troubled, when at Lucerne, with the Swiss fashion of spending Sunday, and offered the villagers $400 if they would adopt, while she was there, the English fashion, which, as far as our observation goes, means to go in the back doors of gin palaces and drink to brutality.

—The Pittsburger Republikaner, a German Democratic paper published in this city, is always behind the age, but it was unusually so on Friday, until which day it had not found out that the Republican majority in Maine was not 15,000. How long will it take it to find out the other six thousand of the majority, is a conundrum which we give up in despair.

—The following original and attractive advertisement appeared in a recent number of Galignani's Messenger: "Any gentleman of good family having the entrée to Belgian society is invited by a lady and gentleman highly connected to visit them at Spa, and spend the winter with them at Brussels as their guest, quite free of any pecuniary consideration, the onlye quivalent asked for, being the desired introduction. A small establishment. A good cook. The highest references."

—Some one or other has amused himself by counting the average number of visitors to the Church of Notre Dame in Paris. They amount to 1500 per day, 1000 of them being foreigners. Out of the 1500, 200 ascend the towers, and 500 visit the "Tresor," the religious and historical objects of interest that are shown in the vestry. Out of the 200 who mount the towers, 150 are furnished with telescopes or opera-glasses, 30 have maps of Paris, and 10 carry Victor Hugo's celebrated description of "Paris á Vol d'Oiseau."

—The Lanterne question in Paris has reached an odd phase. A. M. de Foudard writes to the Tribune to say that among his samples of mock jewelry he has had a diminutive lantern in his possession for five years, and that on Thursday last, while his wife was out on business affairs—exhibiting samples, no doubt, and obtaining orders—she was arrested and locked up for two hours, every article in her possession bearing the remotest resemblance to a lantern being taken from her. At the same moment a commissary of police and four agents paid a visit to his workshop and seized every article of jewelry they could find, whether in a finished or unfinished state, that approximated to the proscribed form.

—The Bucyrus Journal says:

Our Devil heard of the great Republican victories everywhere, and in our absence jammed the returns into our machine and ground out the following:

Vermont!
Out upon't!
30,000, very nearly,
Making Copperheads feel queerly.

Colorado!
Another blow,
Showing Abolition gains
On our far off Western plains.

Maine!
Again
A fearful Democratic slaughter
In the State of pure cold water.

No longer Copperheads feel plucky
About the rebel State Kentucky,
But hang their heads because they can't
Deny the coming man is Grant.

There is no knowing what else the machine would have ground out, if we had not just then come in and stopped him.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with three feet nine inches by the Monongahela marks. We are in hopes, however, as another rainy season seems to have set in, that navigation will not be restricted by low water, and that another rise is near at hand.

The arrivals since our last report include the New State, from Wheeling, and Bayard, from Parkersburg. The New York, from Cincinnati, is due here to-day.

The Mary Savage and barges departed for St. Louis on Saturday evening with all the freight she could take on the water.

The Eagle did not arrive on time to leave again for Parkersburg on Saturday, having been delayed by fog. She departed on Sunday morning.

The Ida Rees No. 2, Capt. Albert, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville forthwith.

The Bayard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

The Bellevernon, for Pittsburgh, and Armenia, for St. Louis, left Cincinnati on Friday.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. Geo. W. Reed, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville forthwith.

A cotemporary, in noticing the consolidation of the two rival Brownsville packet lines, says: This competion was fun for the people, in the way of low fares, but death to the profits of the stockholders in the rival companies. It is said the "Uni n" line lost upwards of a hundrod thousand dollars, instead of making as much. The "People's" lost, but not so heavily. Now for high prices to make up the deficit.

The following towboats were in port on Saturday: Coal Bluff, Hawk Eye No. 2, Collier, Mary Alice and Grand Lake.

The R. C. Gray is up for New Orleans.

—The Glendale is loading at St. Louis for Pittsburgh.

—The Camelia arrived at St. Louis on Thursday last.

—The Mississippi has been raised. Damage not more than $2,000.

—Capt. John L. Rhodes left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday night.

—Gibson & Wymond, of Madison, Ind., shipped 10,000 empty oil barrels to Pittsburgh on Monday last.

—The Bellevernon and J. N. McCullough were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday.

—Mr. Walter Maratta, who acted as chief clerk on the Emma No. 3, last trip, was sick during nearly the whole voyage.

—The Leni Leoti on Thursday arrived at Cincinnati from St. Louis with a full load. Capt. McComas talks of loading her for Nashville.

—A Helena, Montana, dispatch says that the steamer Fanny Barker, the last boat of the season, is advertised to leave Cow Island on the 20th.

—Captain Rusk will probably take command of the Westmoreland in the Cincinnati and New Orleans trade, with Captain Byers in the office.

—The Leni Leoti, which boat arrived at Cincinnati on Thursday, had only one item of freight for Pittsburgh, 245 sks of wheat for McBane and Anjer.

—Capt. Ed. Evans, formerly of the Westmoreland, will probably soon have command of a new boat to be built here by Capt. Rhodes and others.

—Competition on the Upper Mississippi grows warmer every day. Fare to Davenport six dollars, to Keokuk two dollars. A further reduction is expected next week.

—The Urilda passed Sioux City, Thursday, en route from Fort Benton to St. Louis, with a full passenger trip. The Ida Stockdale from Fort Randall, passed Omaha Thursday night.

—The Glasgow left Cincinnati for Pittsburg on Thursday evening, with a fair trip. By the time she fills her engagements above, she will have all she wants. Pilots, Capt. Marsh. Hays and Capt. James Hamilton.

—Wednesday's St. Louis Democrat says: Mr. John P. Keiser, formerly a Missouri river Captain, went some months ago to the gold regions and put up a quartz mill, which is now in full blast, and turning out an abundance of cash for him. Captain Keiser will arrive here about the 1st of October.

—Acting Attorney General Ashton is busily engaged in preparing an opinion on the question referred to him by the Secretary of War as to the right of steamboats impressed into the service during the war, and lost in the rebel States, to receive compen ation from the Quartermaster General therefor.

—Such a stage of water as that which now swells the Cumberland was never before known at this season of the year. The ruins in the country above must have been unprecedentedly incessant and heavy. Sixteen feet was reported on the shoals last night, and the river wrs still rising at a rapid rate.

—On the down trip of the Bostona two thieves got aboard at New Richmond, and were detected in trying to effect an entrance into the stateroom occupied by a passenger known to have considerable money. On the arrival of the boat at Cincinnati they were promptly handed over by the Captain to the police.

—The arrangements in regard to tariffs recently existing between the different packet companies, plying on the Upper Mississippi from St. Louis, have been broken up, and the Northern Line and Keokuk Packet Companies have become allies in a desperate war on the White Collar Line. The opposition will probably be fiercer than ever before.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Saturday, says: The Robert Moore arrived yesterday morning from Pittsburgh, and after discharging her cargo she was turned over by Captain Kerr to the Nasville Packet Company, her new owners. Nine thousand dollars was price paid for her. Captain Kerr is negotiating with Captain Reese and others of Pittsburgh for the Arg sy, now on her way up from Henderson, Kentucky, whither she went with a load of railroad iron.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 144⅛.

GEN. JOHN C. FREMONT has engaged to speak in the Fourth and Ninth Districts o Indiana, for the Republican cause.

THE Republican contest in the Tioga and Potter Assembly District, has been settled by the nomination of B. B. STRONG and T. B. NILES, the latter in place of JOHN S. MANN.

THE New England Democratic journals now insist that their folk did not expect anything from Maine. Why, then, was $100,000, and swarms of orators sent thither?

THE Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will hold its next Fair at Harrisburg, September 29 and 30th, and October 1st and 2d. Special rates of fare are offered on the Pennsylvania railroad.

REPUBLICAN prospects throughout the whole West and Northwest were never better—never so good as now. There is not the slightest chance for the Democrats to carry a single State in all those broad regions.

MONEYED MEN in the South are paying ten cents on the dollar for Confederate bonds, in anticipation of the election of SEYMOUR and BLAIR, when it is expected that this paper will go up to the value of the present Union debt.

LAST year the Republicans of Dauphin county did excellently. This year they are resolved upon a still farther improvement. They intend to show the largest ratable increase of majority. In this fraternal contest they are having plenty of rivals.

AT Philadelphia the Republicans are working with a spirit and determination which evince that they mean to win a handsome victory; and they will. All dissensions are hushed, and unitedly they are marching on the enemy's works.

WE learn from the Nashville Press that there is only one district in Tennessee where the Democrats have the remotest chance of electing a Congressman. This exception is the Memphis District which gave us 2,800 majority two years ago, but now has two Republicans ruhning against one Democrat.

THE triangular contest for the Republican nomination for State Senator in the Bradford district, has ended in the selection of Mr. PETER M. OSTERHOUT, over Mr. GEORGE LANDON. This is well. Mr. LANDON has uncommon abilities, but he belongs to a class that had always better be left in private life. Mr. OSTERHOUT has served acceptably in the House for several years.

THE Massachusetts Democracy repudiate the financial planks of the New York platform. Their candidate for Governor, ADAMS, says, in his published letter accepting the nomination, that, by these objectionable planks—

"The Democratic party appeared to commit themselves to an indefinite extension of the intolerable nuisance of an irredeemable paper currency. I am too much of a Democrat to regard any such a prospect with patience. I believe in hard money, and therein hold myself to be a true Jacksonian Democrat."

How many such "Jacksonian Democrats" remain in Pennsylvania?

GOV. GEARY has issued his writ directing the vacancy created by the death of Mr. D. A. FINNEY, M. C., for the XXth District of Pennsylvania, to be filled at the October election. Doubtless, Mr. GILFILLAN, the Republican candidate for the full term will be nominated on that side for the vacancy.

"PUSH the Debt and Taxation upon public attention," shouted Mr. SEYMOUR. Up in Maine his supporters obeyed the injunction, even following his example of wilful misrepresentation. The result is before the nation, and is highly satisfactory to the Republicans. Let the Democrats keep on "pushing."

IT IS AN evidence of the extraordinary effort to be made by the Democracy to carry Pennsylvania in October that they are sending their ablest and most eminent representative men hither, to take part in the canvass. Messrs. DOOLITTLE, S. S. COX, BRICK POMEROY, and PENDLETON are already addressing our people, or are advertised for future meetings.

PITTSBURGH has a well-earned reputation for the heartiness and grandeur of its large Republican demonstrations. This week it will surpass all its past demonstrations in that line. The illumination and parade on Wednesday evening will be on a scale of unexampled magnificence, unless the weather shall interfere. So, also, the gathering of the clans in council on Thursday will be unmatched. All about us, in these municipal districts and in the surrounding counties, we hear the busy hum of popular tide.

SINCE 1865 conductors and engineers of railway trains have been liable to penal responsibility for accidents happening in consequence of running faster than the respective schedules prescribed. In Venango county the first suit has been brought under this law. A train was thrown down an embankment, and two young women and a man seriously injured. The train was going much faster than the rules and regulations authorized. The father of the young women is the complainant, and the case will soon come up for trial.

NEBRASKA comes next; her election is to be held on the first Tuesday, the 6th of October, when Governor, State officers, Legislature and one Congressmen are to be chosen. In '60 we elected our Governor by 145 majority in June and our Congressmen by 745 majority in the ensuing October. We shall next month add the name of this new State to the GRANT and COLFAX column.

Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa will follow, a week after, the 13th, West Virginia on the 22d, and the other States in which local elections are to be held, will combine them with the choice of Presidential electors for the same day in November.

THE KENTUCKY DEMOCRACY claim that, in the end, every dollar's worth of property destroyed in that State and in Maryland, during the war, will be paid. The Virginia Democracy say their slaves must be paid for. The entire rebel South demand the payment of the Confederate debt of six thousand millions, and the allowance of pensions and bounties to their soldiers, upon the same footing as the existing Union debts, or they swear that the latter shall be altogether repudiated. Since we all know that the Southern rebels are the dominant wing of the National Democracy, prescribing for the latter its candidates and platform, it is easy to see what sort of an entertainment that party will invite us to, in the event of their success in November.

FROM information derived from intelligent and judicious friends residing in the different counties composing what is known as Western Pennsylvania, we are confident the Republican majority in October will at least fully equal the largest heretofore obtained, and that the majority in November will be altogether unprecedented. So much by way of encouragement to Republicans elsewhere.

Republicans of Western Pennsylvania! push on the work of the canvass. Much is expected of you; but you can surpass the anticipations of the most sanguine, if you will. But this requires well directed and persistent labor. We know you are at it, and that you will not falter or mistake. Let us take a fresh start, and advance our whole line.

THE Democratic party has formally and completely committed itself to the principle of equal taxation of all property. None of their Conventions have yet specified the proper rate to be levied, but leading Democrats in Congress, having suggested two per cent. as the rate for bond-taxation, this is perhaps the figure intended to be applied to all property. The farmer will therefore pay, after that party attains the control of affairs, a tax of two dollars on each one hundred dollars of valuation of his land. Real estate in town and country will thus yield an immense revenue—quite enough to justify the party in following up their favorite policy at once, by taking off all duties from importations, throwing open the ports, getting foreign goods cheap, and destroying at one blow all our domestic industries. The people may like the prospect, but for our own part, we prefer things as they now are.

THE NEW YORK Journal of Commerce reads its Democratic associates a sharp lesson. It begins by stating what every man of sense knew before, that "the result of the election in Maine is highly favorable to the Republicans;" and then goes on to charge this result to the fact that "instead of conciliating the wise and good of all parties, and thus forming a strong Conservative alliance that would have swept the country, the men of extreme views and reckless conduct have been taken into counsel, and violent denunciations have been employed in place of reason and sober argument." Every word of which statement is true. But the mass of the Democrats have gone beyond the point in which it is possible for them to profit by good advice or bitter experience. They are smitten with what the theologians call "judicial blindness,"—and will be left to reap the full consequences of their infatuation.

DEMOCRATIC LOVE OF DISLOYALTY.

The framers of the Democratic National Platform manifested a deep concern, in the first place to deliver the rebel leaders from the punishments and disabilities to which they were justly amenable, and then to restore to their hands the political control of the States that participated in the rebellion. This appears conspicuously in the first and second demands embodied in that document, and which are in the words following:

"First—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

"Second—Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their own citizens."

To appreciate aright the meaning of these two demands, it is essential to consider that the relations of the loyal States to the national Government are precisely what they were before the war, and that the rights and immunities of the citizens of those States, and all classes thereof, remain unchanged. It follows, therefore, that the solicitude exhibited is not for the loyal States, or any portions of their inhabitants. No thought is bestowed upon them; upon the sacrifices they were compelled to incur in order to preserve the Union; or upon their just right to be made reasonably secure against the necessity for similar losses and hardships in future.

Not yet is this anxiety displayed in behalf of the loyal inhabitants of the States that embarked in Rebellion. No fear is expressed that the political authority in those States may revert to the same men that held it during the war, and who are as hostile to the Union now as at any former period. No care is evinced to protect loyalists in the enjoyment of their unquestionable rights, and to ensure to them that degree of influence which is essential to the restoration of concord, and consequently to the perpetuation of peace.

The solicitude is altogether in behalf of the rebel leaders. They alone are under disabilities, and their relief therefrom is prompted to by sympathy with their principles and conduct, and by the mutual advantages which would result from the renewal of their ascendency.

Let us scrutinize these demands somewhat more closely.

"The immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution." Seven of these States have already been restored, and the remaining three will be as soon as they shall comply with the conditions exacted of them. In the purview of this demand those seven States are not yet restored to their rights. The conditions laid upon them are held to be in derogation of the Constitution. The Democratic idea seems to be that any number of the States may, at any time, wage war against the Union as long as they can, and when conquered may slip back into their old places unchallenged and without giving any guarantees whatever for good behavior thereafter. The purpose is to get them back as they were before they went out. At the least, that implies a good deal, and may be construed to mean even the restoration of Slavery.

But the same clause of the Platform goes farther and makes a parade of demanding the restoration of "civil Government to the American people." Now, the American people are not aware that they have been deprived of civil Government. They have a deep consciousness that they are in as full and absolute possession of that boon as they ever were. Certain rebels and rebel States are under military supervision; and that grieves the Democrats everywhere. Their grief does not surprise us; but the attempt to convey the impression that those rebels constitute the American people, would confound us if we did not know that Democratic audacity in that line is unbounded.

The second demand, of "Amnesty for all past political offenses," indicates the same complicity and fraternization with Treason. The Republicans are ready to pardon all citizens for sharing in the revolt who now show they are repentant; but in view of the loud threats made of a renewal of the strife, and of the terrible tragedies perpetrated by the Ku-Klux, they are not ready for Universal Amnesty. Only the enemies of the Government are anxious for that. In the present state of affairs at the South, Universal Amnesty means encouragement to disloyalty and to the most infamous crimes against the peace and well-being of society. It does not commend the Democratic party to popular support that they are eager to cover men who are as much rebels now as heretofore, with an act of oblivion.

But this second section advances a step farther and demands that the rebel States, restored to their rights under the Constitution, as the Democrats expound that process, shall have "the regulation of the elective franchise" within their respective borders. This means that the rebels shall have the power to disfranchise the loyalists, and take matters exclusively into their own hands. In Georgia the Democrats have been putting this idea somewhat into practice, and what they have done, in flat violation of the Civil Rights act, and their own State Constitution, shows how much farther they would go if the Democratic demand in their behalf which we are considering should be granted.

It is natural the Democrats should let out what is in them, and we thank them for their candor; but it will be to their ruin at the November elections, to the permanent welfare of the country and genuine civil liberty the world over.

HON. JAMES G. BLAINE, Representative in Congress from the Augusta (Maine) district, just re-elected by an increased majority, was Chairman of the Republican State Committee which led the Republican party in its late glorious triumph. He is a native of Pennsylvania; was born in Washington county in 1840, graduated at Washington College in this State, and began his political career as editor of the Portland (Maine) Advertiser, when he moved to the Star of the East. He is the most prominent candidate for Speaker of the next House of Representatives.

BRITISH NATIONAL DEBT.

From official documents the following statistics of the national debt and commerce of Great Britain are gleaned:

At the close of the financial year on the 31st of March, 1855, the funded debt amounted to £752,064,119; the unfunded debt was £23,151,400; and the estimated capital of terminable annuities, £26,763,244; making the total amount of the National Debt £801,978,763. A year later, at the corresponding date in 1856, at the close of the Crimean war, the amount was £829,579,798; at the like date in 1857, £841,722,963; in 1858, £826,134,640; in 1859, £823,934,880; in 1860, £815,070,310; in 1861, £818,048,896; in 1862, £817,389,290; in 1863, £817,559,322; in 1864, £813,230,134; in 1865, £808,189,398; in 1866, £802,842,949; in 1867, £800,848,847; and on the 31st of March, 1868, £797,031,650; —viz: £741,190,328 funded debt, £7,911,100 unfunded, and £47,930,222, the estimated capital value of the terminable annuities, which in that year amounted to £3,447,270. Since 1855 the increase of debt incurred for the Crimean war has been wiped out, and the proportion of debt payable by terminable annuities has been materially increased.

The total gross revenue of the country for the year ended March, 1868, amounted to £69,600,218 sterling. Of this sum $22,650,000 was derived from customs, and £20,162,000 from excise duties, £9,541,000 from stamps; £6,177,000 from property and income tax, and £3,509,000 from other taxes; $4,630,000 from the postoffice, £345,000 from crown lands, and £2,586,218 from miscellaneous receipts. The charges of collection of revenue amounted to £4,883,294, and the total expenditure, after deducting charges of collection, to £66,343,038, which is thus epitomized:—£26,571,750 for interest and management of the National debt; £11,193,757 for the civil list and civil charges of all kinds; £15,4 8,582 for the army, including ordnance and all other military charges; and £11,168,949 for the navy. The customs revenue was derived—from duties on sugar and molasses, amounting to £5,582,473; on tea, to £2,827,317; on coffee, to £390,181; on corn, meal and flour, to £869,323; on spirits, to £4,298,403; on wine, to £1,468,993; on tobacco and snuff, to $6,542,250; on other imported articles, to £581,481; and on miscellaneous receipts, to £104,580. The excise duties consisted of £10,511,530 derived from spirits, £6,302,419 from malt, £2,640,238 from licenses, and £736,152 from other receipts. By an abstract of alterations of taxes from 1853 to 1867, it is found that taxes were repealed or reduced to the extent of £40,292,904, and were imposed to the extent of £28,448,596, causing at the end of 1867 an actual diminution to the extent of £11,844,308 sterling. The total value of imports during the past year was £275,249,853, or £9 2s. 6d. per head of population of the United Kingdom. The total value of exports (British, foreign and colonial produce) was £226,067,136, and the total value of imports and exports represented £16 12s. 5d. per head of the population. The actual receipts at the Exchequer fell short of the sum estimated in the budget by a sum of £369,782, and the actual payments out of the Exchequer (excluding fortifications) were less than those estimated in the budget (including supplemental votes) by £50,785.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

Returns from 346 incorporated towns, mostly official, give CHAMBERLAIN a majority of 21,214. The one hundred small precincts to hear from will probably swell that majority above 22,000. Have our Democratic friends any later news? One of their editors, BRICK POMEROY, says:

"The State election in Maine has been held—the smoke has lifted—the Republicans have over 20,000 majority. We are defeated there and do not like it. We met the enemy in Maine and are theirs. They whipped us there worse than we supposed they would or could, and it hurts. Duty to our readers—a desire to speak truth—makes us admit a defeat there—a stronger Republican vote than we looked for. We did not expect to carry the State, nor to make heavy gains there. Some editors have bragged on the great prospects there, and told their readers the Democrats were to carry the State. And now they tell us we were not worsted in the Maine fight: but we are!"

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGES.

The States will be entitled to votes as follows, after the November election:

Alabama 8; Arkansas 5; California 5; Connecticut 6; Delaware 3; Florida 3; Georgia 9; Illinois 16; Indiana 13; Iowa 8; Kansas 3; Kentucky 11; Louisiana 7; Maine 7; Maryland 7; Massachusetts 12; Michigan 8; Minnesota 4; Missouri 11; Nebraska 3; Nevada 3; New Hampshire 5; New Jersey 7; New York 33; North Carolina 9; Ohio 21; Oregon 3; Pennsylvania 26; Rhode Island 4; South Carolina 6; Tennessee 10; Vermont 6; West Virginia 5; Wisconsin 8; total 294.

Not entitled to vote—Mississippi 7; Texas 6; Virginia 10; total 23.

THE following extract from a private letter is published in the Cincinnati Commercial. Its author is a Mississippian:

"I am a Southern man by birth, education and feeling, and wish only the peace, quiet and prosperity of my country, and as such feel no hesitancy in saying that the election of Grant and Colfax can alone give us these; while the election of Seymour and Blair will bring greater discord and a more unsettled state of affairs with us than now exists. With Grant and Colfax elected, our people will cease to follow the behests of our wild politicians, and will realize that it is wise to accept the situation, which they will cheerfully do, and our peace and prosperity will certainly follow"

This is the literal truth. The worst thing for the Southern people that could happen would be the triumph of the Democratic party at the November elections.

GEN. FORREST, the eminent Democratic leader, thus explains the Fort Pillow butchery:

"There were with me many citizens who had been wronged, and, I think, without waiting for the surrender of the men who had wronged them and their families, they shot them down."

THE Democracy of New York are making extensive preparations for the reception of General McClellan, who is expected to arrive from Europe next week. A procession of the various campaign clubs, a grand mass meeting and a banquet are understood to be the prominent features of the programme.

THE Philadelphia Morning Post gives the following excellent recipe for making Democratic gains:

To get at the Gain you must take the Standard Democratic Arithmetic, published at the World office, and for sale at the office of the Age. This classic volume should be in the hands of every Democratic voter. It is what is called a vade mecum. You will see by this invaluable work that you must always subtract the larger number from the lesser, and then average the remainder by a strict comparison with the election returns of some old almanac, and the older it is the better. Now, if you will please recollect that four times five is fifty, and that twice two makes ten, and then that ninety-four into seventeen goes six times, and that thirty-four from twenty-five leaves eleven, you will easily comprehend that the Democrats made great gains in Maine. You have first got to deduct from the so-called Republican majority of 22,000 about 30,000 illegal votes, and to add to the Democratic vote about the same number to cover the tare and tret. Then you must take the per centage of the gain of the majority of the vote of the Democracy in 1808, just fifty years ago, and see how the square root can be extracted from the difference.

About nine o'clock the stand gave way, and the Senator had to abridge his remarks. Several persons were slightly injured.

Democratic Argument.

EDITORS GAZETTE: The following beautiful specimen of Democratic argument, uttered at the meeting of the unterrified on Thursday night last by our friend Johnson, is especially recommended to the attention of "Jim Parr" (as "lager beer Johnnie" calls him) and other intelligent Democrats, and in the judgment of the writer is too good to be lost.

The speaker, addressing himself to his foreign-born hearers, thus spaketh:

"You, you, YOU, yes YOU feller-citizens, you are forced to remain in this here free and enlightened country of ours for FIVE years before YOU are permitted to exercise the right of suffrage; but what do we SEE? What do we HEAR? In one fell swoop, with one stroke of the pen, in one little hour, four million of black niggers are authorized to exercise this precious privilege, which was intended only for the white man."

Regular Democratic yells followed this outburst of eloquence, showing that the audience appreciated the orator's effort.

When we remember that there are only "four million" blacks all told, men, women and children in the South, and that they were all born and raised in this country, the force and beauty of the extract can only be seen by A TANNER BOY.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Are the most efficient and most popular Diuretic medicine known, removing at once any obstruction of the Kidneys, subduing Inflamation and strengthening the Urinary Organs.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Have been in use 35 years, and are daily performing wonderful cures. In many instances where patients were unable to walk upright or to rise without assistance, they have been relieved by a single dose.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Cure all diseases of the Urinary Organs, the symptoms of which are weakness and pain in the back and loins, pains in the joints, difficulty in voiding the urine, general debility, &c.

THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &C.,

Are those organs through which most of the waste or worn out particles of the body passes; these worn out and dead particles are poisonous, consequently when these organs are diseased the whole system becomes deranged, and if not relieved at once the result may be fatal.

This much esteemed and most efficient medicine is the only diuretic that is put up in the shape of Pills, and is much more easily taken than the ordinary diuretic draughts, the Pills being sugar coated

HAPPINESS DEPENDS UPON GOOD DIGESTION.

"Weakness of the Stomach" is the source of more evils than were contained in Pandoras' Box. Debility, headache, nervous tremors, palpitation of the heart, and local pains innumerable, are its direct consequences. It obscures the intellect and gives birth to the most absurd and incoherent fancies; it capacitates a man for business, and renders persistent exertion next to impossible. Yet, strange to say, indigestion is the most neglected of all ailments. And this is the more extraordinary from the fact that an absolute, infallible specific for the disorder can be obtained in every city, town and village of the United States.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS takes as wide a range as the malady which it cures. It pervades every civilized portion of the Western Hemisphere, and its celebrity as a tonic and alterative is everywhere established. It is due to the common sense of the American public to say that the demand for it is immense, and continually on the increase; but still thousands continue to suffer from dyspepsia, with the great fact staring them in the face that a remedy for it exists, as it were, within armslength of every sufferer. Such is the inconsistency of human nature! Day by day, however, the number of those who manifest this insane indifference to their own health and comfort diminishes, and the time will come, it is confidently believed when the disease will be expelled from the category of prevalent disorders by this incomparable alterative and restorative.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR.

In observations and notes taken by DR. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if application were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The Doctor quotes from the opinion of Wilde, a well known aural surgeon, who says: "I fear not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the disease of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment. * * Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themselves familiar with the treatment of the diseases of the ear."

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying Discharges, Buzzings and Morbid Growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which had lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life to persons resident in the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living after a period of a few years, an annual income equal in ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. Then after the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, and General Agencies.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, September 19, 1868.

The war rumors from Europe having proved false, the Foreign Bankers did their best to get rid of their gold, and sold it down, to-day, to 144⅛, at which price, however, only large amounts could be bought on future delivery, the market havin touched 144⅛ to 144¾. If it was not for the extraordinary supply of Exchange the market would stand much higher to-day whether there were war rumors or none. The imports are kept up, and the supply of gold on the market is getting more and more reduced and accumulates in the subtreasury. The fair prospects of a Republican victory in November has induced parties to borrow gold on their November interest, thus selling in advance what may command a much higher price in November. Further more, large sums of gold have been sold short at about 144, and to cover this with a profit it ought to be bought back at about 143. Lent money being cheap, the bulls have but little difficulty in carrying a large amount of gold at no interest at all.

Government bonds still remain very inactive, and though it is claimed that they are cheap, especially the new bonds, yet investors are very timid in buying; the only bonds that have advanced are the old 1865 and 1864 5-20's, which were supposed to be coming back from Europe for exchange, but were shipped only in small lots. Ten Forties have lost their prestige, and are neglected. The best reason given for the neglect of governments at present is the excited and precarious condition of the stock market; the bulls have thrown their whole force on that, and have their funds engaged. A prudent observer will see that an early decline in the stock market is inevitable, and stocks will carry down bonds, although they would immediately advance again in order to employ the capital disengaged by stock speculation.

The stock market is entirely under the control of the bulls; if the bears are willing to be bled and are in a condition to beed, then much higher prices may ensue, and a large number of firms may be crippled. It seems that Monday morning will witness a fresh rise; the timid holders having sold out to-day, and the bears succeeded in getting but a small amount of stocks: the rise, however, does not seem to be carried over the entire list. New York Central is the strongest on the list, and is the main dependence of the bull party.

Business is improving, and money easy.

—The indisposition of holders of Governments to part with them is one of the striking features of the market, and is partly the result of an easy money market, and partly of confidence in the faith of the nation to make good its promises in the payment of these securities. It is authoritatively stated from Washington that the Sherman Funding bill, as it is called, which passed both houses of Congress just before the recent adjournment, failed to become a law for want of the signature of the President. The bill known as the Funding bill must repass both Houses by a two-thirds vote before it can have any legal effect.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, September, 19, 1868.

The markets, in general, have been moderately active during the past week, there having been a fair volume of business, in the aggregate, though there is, nevertheless, plenty of room for improvement. There is an almost total absence of anything like a speculative feeling, and this, of course, restricts the demand for everything to supplying the immediate wants of the home trade. In values, there has been no important changes, one way or the other.

APPLES—In light supply and firm but unchanged at $3 to $4,25 per bbl.

POTATOES—Dull and drooping; we now quote at $1,12 to $1,15 per bushel, and $3,20 to $3,25 per bbl. Sweets range from $6,00 to $6,50 per bbl.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed continues in good supply and dull but unchanged at $3,50 to $3,75. Flax Seed is scarce and in demand at $2,45 to $2,50. Clover Seed nominal at $7,75 to $8.

SALT—Is dull and nominally unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80, to the trade, and $2, in a small way.

BUTTER—Is firm, and prices are fully sustained, ranging from 35 to 40c.

EGGS—The supply seems to be about equal to the demand, and we can report regular sales at 22 to 23c—mostly at 23.

CHEESE—Is unchanged at 15 to 16c for Western Reserve and Hamburgh; 17 to 18c for Factory and Goshen, and 20c for Sweitzer.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged; the mills continue to pay $2,05 to $2,10, for Red, and 3 to 5 cents higher for White. Oats in limited supply and firm but unchanged; 65 to 66c, on track and in elevator, and 68 to 70c, in store. Corn is firm, with sales of mixed at $1,14 to $1,15, and $1,16 to $1,18 for prime Yellow. Barley—but little offering; good Spring may be quoted at $1,90, while choice commands $2. No. 2 Chicago can be laid down here at about $1,90. Rye is nominal at $1,38 to $1,40.

HAY—Is firm and in limited supply; Hay wagon sold in the Allegheny market on Friday at $30 to $39, as to quality, and at the close, some holders were asking $40.

LARD OIL—Is quiet and unchanged at $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unhanged at 14 cts, for Shoulders; 16½ for Ribbed and 18 to 18¼ for Clear Sides, and 21 to 21¾ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is unchanged at 20 in tierces, and 22 in kegs. Mess Pork $30,50 to $31.

WHISKY—Is fairly active and firm but unchanged; we continue to quote common rectified per gallon $1,25; half rye and half corn per gallon $1,75; old Monongahela rye, two years old, per gallon $2,25; old Monongahela rye, three years old, per gallon, $3,50; highwines per gallon $1,35.

FLOUR—Has been very quiet throughout the past week, the demand having been confined almost entirely to supplying the wants of the home trade. Prices, however, have undergone no quotable change. Spring Wheat brands, $9,50 to $10,25. The "Pearl" and "City Mills" continue to quote Extra Family at $10,50 in bbls, and $10,20 in sacks; Double Extra at $11 in bbls, and $10,70, in sacks. Rye Flour, $9.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, September 19, 1868.

REVIEW FOR THE WEEK.

The course of the oil market during the past week, which has just closed, has been by no means a smooth one, having been characterized by that irregularity and uncertainty which has prevailed for some time past, and which, from present indications, will continue for several weeks to come. There has, nevertheless, been a fair volume of business, in the aggregate, the sales coming up to the usual average. Prices were weak and drooping until Friday, and to-day, when a firmer feeling sprung up, especially for early deliveries, and a slight advance for both Crude and Refined was established. The receipts of Crude during the week footed up 22,824 barrels, against 20,670 barrels last week, and from January 1st until date, 765,036 barrels. The exports of refined were 18,336, against 17,120 last week, and since January 1st, 477,933, against 447,528, corresponding time last year, showing an increase of 30,405 bbls. Sales this week of both Crude and Refined footed up 95,500 bbls, against 50,100 last week, showing an increase of 45,500 barrels.

CRUDE.

The market, although firm, was again very quiet to-day, with but a single sale reported, 1,000 bbls, to be delivered between October 1st and December 1st, seller's option, at 11c. Spot oil—not a single reported; held at 11⅛ to 11¼c, with no buyers at anything over eleven. The main cause for the firmness in spot oil lies in the fact that Refined is also a shade better for immediate delivery, as well as to the fact that the supply here is light, and there is but little offering. As will have been seen, however, the improvement, as yet, does not amount to much, as the advance is very slight, and in regard to the future, opinions are very conflicting. One party entertains hopes that a reaction and better prices has set in, while another, equally as strong, contend that big prices during the remainder of this season is not at all probable.

REFINED.

The market for Refined was also very quiet to-day, though September and October are fully as strong as they were yesterday, while November and December are entirely nominal. There are some slight apprehensions of an attempt to bring about a "corner" between now and the first of October, and it is this that has stiffened the market these months. There were but two sales reported, one of 500 and the other 1000, both for October and both at 29¼c. September is also quoted strong at the same figure. November is nominal at 28¾c, and December at 28⅛c; all the year, seller's option, at 27½c, and same delivery, buyer's option, at 29⅛c.

OLD KENTUCKY.

Railroads—Wealth of the State—Advantages—Emigrants Needed—Resources to be Developed, &c.

[Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CRAB ORCHARD SPRINGS, KY.
September 14, 1868.

I drop you a few hasty notes from far up in "Old Kentucky." I have been on a short visit to some parts of the famous blue-grass regions, and now am under the shadow of the outlying arm of the mountain. This has long been a famous local watering place; the springs are in great favor with the Kentuckians and hundreds flock here during the proper season. Now that they can be approached by the Knoxville extension of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, they have become much more accessible and popular. I have been over some portions of the new road which is designed to connect Louisville and South Western Kentucky with East Tennessee and Virginia. This will certainly be one of the finest roads from tide-water to the South-West when completed. I am surprised to find some opposition to the road, but trust this is only local and personal.

No improvement can certainly offer more inducement to capitalists than this. It will penetrate even the finest mineral regions in the country. What will enterprising Pennsylvanians think of carrying coal one thousand miles, when a superior quality of the same mineral lies at their very doors? Yet, such is the fact. I have seen Pittsburgh coal at points even above this!

The Company are pushing forward the road (Knoxville extension,) with considerable vigor. The track is laid within a few miles of Mt. Vernon, the county seat of Rock Castle county, and thence will be extended to London, in Laurel county, as speedily as practicable. The road is under contract through Laurel. Some of the contractors are pushing their work with great vigor. Mr. W. L. Hoblitzell, who built some important sections on the main road, also on the Parkersburg branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, is a heavy contractor here. He drove during the last month a tunnel 110 feet, which is considered a great feat, considering the character of the geological formation.

Among the contractors here, I notice Mr. Broadhead, a Pennsylvanian, who has been in Kentucky several years.

With this road completed to some point on the Virginia & Tennessee Railroad, direct communication will be had between the Ohio at the falls, and below with tide water at Norfolk. The route must become the most popular and successful from the east to the south-west.

Kentucky needs roads and new settlers. Her vast deposits of mineral wealth must be developed; her great resources laid open for her people. The large farms must be cut up and emigrants invited. It is a fine field for the energy, enterprise and capital of Middle-State men. Pennsylvanians would be delighted with the country and its advantages.

The soil is very fine—equal to the choicest Washington county farms, to which there is a manifest resemblance, outside of the blue grass region. The climate is good, healthy, well watered and in every respect inviting, when the railroads shall have let in the light which always follows the locomotive! Several important cross roads are contemplated—the Paducah, Danville, and others, but the Eastern line must be built first.

OBSERVER.

The Paraguayan Conflict.

The details of recent operations on the Parana river show that the Paraguayans were not driven from the powerful fortifications of Humaita, but abandoned them for a new and still more powerful line of defensive works near the mouth of the Tibicuari river. Before retiring, however, Lopez inflicted a most murderous repulse upon the Allies. Marshal Caxias discovered, on the 25th of July, that the garrison were preparing to leave, and he accordingly dispatched a heavy force to intercept them.

The Paraguayans kept perfectly quiet until the Allies had got within almost gunshot range, when they opened a most sweeping and destructive fire of grape and canister, which swept down entire regiments of the advancing columns and sent the survivors fleeing back in confusion and dismay to their lines. Caxias did not attempt a second time to interfere with Lopez's plans. The latter withdrew, and on the 25th the Allies occupied Humaita, finding two hundred cannon spiked or rendered useless, and about a dozen wounded soldiers in hospital.

A few days before, the Paraguayans performed one of those daring feats which have distinguished them in their memorable defense and elicited the applause of the world. Three hundred brave fellows pushed boldly out into the river in open canoes, and boarded and captured, in the face of a terrific fire of small arms, two of the Brazilian iron clads. They held them for some hours, but were finally compelled to relinquish them, owing to the severity of an artillery fire opened upon them from Fort Taye. During the time of possession they kept the surviving crews of both iron clads locked up in the hatches, whither they had driven them.

Later advices from London state that the Allied army was on the march to lay siege to Lopez's new line of defense in conjunction with the fleet. It is probable, however, that the plucky Paraguayan commander has made preparations to meet them. The whole conduct of his soldiers proves unmistakably that they partake of all his valor and determination, and do not look upon him as a "tyrant." The occupation of Humaita has occasioned much rejoicing through Brazil, the Argentine Republic and Uraguay, though with it are mingled clamors for the removal of Caxias because of the previous disastrous assault.

Indian Census.

The number of Indians of the hostile Indian tribes are thus stated in a frontier journal: Apaches, 8,000; Arapahoes, 3,000; Blackfeet, 6,000; Crows, 3,000; Comanches, 20,000; Kioways, 4,000; Cheyennes, 2,500; Gros Ventres, 500; Minatares, 2,500; Navajoes, 7,500; Sioux, 22,000. Making in all 78,000. These are only the prominent tribes, most of which are more or less hostile, and such as may not be drawn into the confederation of which Red Cloud is the head, will carry on the fight independently. Should the league be as complete as indicated, comprising many small tribes not above enumerated, it would possibly embrace 100,000 souls. This would enable Red Cloud to bring 25,000 to 30,000 warriors into the field, the most of them mounted and well armed.

IT appears from the records of the Treasury Department that the item of $19,500,000 for bounty claims of deceased and discharged soldiers, settled during the past fiscal year, went to make up the increase in the public debt shown in the last report. This amount went into about two thousand families, mostly of the poor, in sums ranging from $25 to $500.

THE Nova Scotia Assembly has passed a unanimous resolution declaring the confederation act not valid, that Nova Scotia does not recognize the confederation, and will withdraw from it, appoint her own officers, collect her own revenue, and, if necessary, make a public appeal for aid.

The Women's Medical College.

This praiseworthy institution is now fairly established on Second avenue, and begins its present course of lectures with greatly increased advantages to the student. The medical profession give the Women's College their hearty support and co-operation. Its teachers are physicians of ability and standing, and are connected with one or other of the public hospitals of the city. It has a board of directors composed of the leading professors from the other medical schools. Its students will have the same freedom of access as those of the other schools to the city dispensaries, hospitals and public medical charaties generally, and will be treated with equal respect.

The course of professional instruction in this college is longer, more thorough and more practical than that which any other medical college has attempted to give.

The lectures extend through three years, and are progressive in their character; whereas in other women's colleges the term is restricted to the legal minimum, and nominal attendance is frequently accepted.

In the Second avenue institution hygiene is taught both practically and theoretically, which is not the case in any other of our medical schools, though it is the basis not only of prophylactic medicine, but of much diagnostic and general treatment. The Women's Medical College of New York has been for fourteen years receiving graduates and students from other medical schools for women, giving them clinical instruction, obtaining admission for them to the hospitals and dispensaries, private classes, &c., and thus it has formed connections with the other professors and institutions which enables it to educate its students inside instead of outside the general current of medical education.

The college has also accumulated an educational fund, which it hopes to increase still further, for the purpose of providing a still fuller and more varied course of instruction.—N. Y. Post.

THE statements which have just been published, of the survivors of the recent wreck of the propellor Hippocampus in Lake Michigan, give in detail the particulars of the terrible catastrophe, the suffering of the survivors and the manner of their rescue. The captain, C. R. Brown, says that they had on board 7,000 baskets of peaches. That when the wind began to increase the vessel rolled badly. At 2:30 o'clock, finding no water in her hoid, he went on deck, and as the rolling increased he called all hands and ordered the peaches to be thrown overboard. This order created great confusion among the passengers, who immediately rushed on deck. Of a sudden the vessel began to sink rapidly, and before any freight was thrown overboard the water began to pour in the after gangway and through the engine room. At the same time the vessel went over on her port side and went down in less than two minutes. The life-boat was cleared, but amid the confusion it was swamped. Two rafts were constructed of the spars and floating rigging on which the survivors clung, while the passengers and others of the crew were crying for help and endeavoring to signal a schooner in the distance. For two days and nights, without food, they held to the rafts which they had managed to fasten together, while the sea was constantly dashing over them. On the morning of the third day, they were picked up by the schooner Trio, when nearly exhausted, and taken to Saugatuck, where they were most kindly cared for. Only fifteen are known to have been saved out of a crew of twenty-one and a large number of passengers.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, OR IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobocco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

700 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

Sale of Real Estate.—A six acre plot of ground on the New Brighton road, corner of Benton avenue, was sold on Saturday by A. Leggate, auctioneer, for the sum of nine thousand dollars. Rev. Jos. R. Kerr was the purchaser.

Correction.—In publishing the Committee of Arrangements for the Soldiers and Sailors, of 24th of September Convention, the names of Gen. Charles Barnes and J. R. Oxley were omitted. Both of them have rendered most valuable assistance.

In justice to the home artist who prepared the cut which appears on our first page this morning, we would say that it is a fac-simile of the specimen of Southern art which the Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Advertiser published in illustration of its leading article.

The Seventh and Eighth Wards Grant and Colfax Club will hold an important meeting this (Monday,) evening, at seven o'clock, at the Franklin street School House. The members are requested to attend fully equipped for the parade to Minersville. See notice under "Political" on fifth page.

Wanted—Information of the whereabouts of "Bob" Miller, who has been missing since Saturday night. He was last seen on Wylie street. He wore dark pants and coat and soft hat. Any information concerning him may be left at No. 112 Penn street, when a suitable reward will be given.

Braddocks Field.—The citizens of this thriving borough complain of the irregularity of the mail service, and it seems there is great negligence on the part of the agent on the Connellsville Railroad. Twice during last week the mail was carried past the borough, and the same has occurred previously.

Presentation.—A beautiful silk flag that cost some one hundred and sixty dollars, has been purchased by the ladies of the Second ward for the Grant and Colfax Club of that district. The presentation will be made to-night at Wilkins Hall, and a general invitation is extended to all to be present.

Sixth (Old Eighth) Ward.—There will be a Republican meeting held at the corner of Magee and Fifth avenue, Sixth (old Eighth) ward, this evening. Addresses will be delivered by General J. Bowman Sweitzer, D. Lyman, Esq., J. M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., and C. W. Robb, Esq. The Bellevue Glee Club will be in attendance.

Some Grapes.—Messrs. Elliott Bros. & Burgess the well known nurserymen and florists, No. 116 Market street, sent us on Saturday, a branch of grape vine thirty-seven inches long and bearing forty bunches of luscious Delaware grapes, all well filled. The specimen came from their vineyard on the Perrysville road and we judge can't be beat.

Fatal Accident.—Mr. Washington Marsh, a drover from the west, while on his way to this city, fell from a stock train on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, and was instantly killed. We was unable to learn at what point on the road the accident occurred, but from our information presume it was some distance west of the city.

Another Body Found.—The body of Alexander Neely, one of the boys drowned in the Monongahela river last week, was found at 7 o'clock A. M., yesterday, at the head of Brunot's Island. The body was removed to Mr. Aiken's (Undertaker) establishment where Coroner Clawson held an inquest. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. The decease was about fifteen years of age, and resided with his parents in South Pittsburgh.

Tobacco and Cigars.—Mr. John Sherer, so well and so favorably known, late of Federal street, Allegheny, has purchased the first-class and popular tobacco, snuff and cigar store of Mr. Daniel Haggerty, No. 87 Fifth street, which he will reopen to-day. The store has been refitted in an elegant manner, and an entire new stock of all brands of smoking and chewing tobaccos, snuffs, cigars of the best quality, meerschaum pipes, tubes, &c., has been opened at very reasonable prices. Call in and look through the stock.

Serious Accident.—John Brennan, a resident of the Eighth ward, Allegheny, was seriously injured at Osborne Station, Pittsbureh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, Saturday night. It appears that he got upon one of the accommodation trains in the evening, and sat down upon the platform with his legs hanging over, in which position it is supposed he went to sleep. A freight train in passing the accommodation ran against his legs, crushing one in a terrible manner and breaking the other. The unfortunate man was removed to Mercy Hospital.

Aggravated Assault and Battery.—John Mulherron made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging "Jack" Bradford with aggravated assault and battery. He alleges that Jack came into his saloon, on High street, where Mrs. Mulherron was keeping bar, and attempted to go behind the counter, and because she refused to allow him to do so he went out on the street, picked up a brick, re-entered the house and struck the woman on the head, inflicting a severe and serious wound. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Alleged Larceny.

John W. McKee made information before Alderman Humbert a few days since, charging E. Hall and his bar-keeper with larceny. It is alleged by the prosecutor that he went into a drinking saloon on Smithfield street kept by Hall, and was taken up stairs where he laid down and went to sleep. When he entered the house he alleges he had in his pocket $120, and when he awoke the next morning his money was gone. He further states that there was no one in the house when he entered but the accused, and that they were there the next morning. A warrant was issued, upon which the defendants were arrested and held to bail for a hearing. We know nothing about the prosecutor, but it is alleged that he was very drunk when he came into the house and that he was not molested or visited by any one after he was taken up stairs. The man who will make a practice of getting drunk and sleeping in houses of that character deserves to lose his money.

A Jealous Husband.

Daley Small made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Thomas Shields with assault and battery. Small is a night watchman on the Pan Handle Railroad, at Second Avenue and Try street, in which neighborhood the defendant resides. It appears that Shields' wife has, on several occasions, when she wanted to get up early in the morning to attend to her work, requested Small to come to the house and rap on the door to awaken her, which request he complied with. From this Shields became jealous and accused his wife with being on too intimate terms with Small. The wife denied the charge, and Saturday evening, while she and her husband were sitting on the steps together, he repeated the charge, whereupon she called Small for the purpose of refuting the slander. Small, not knowing what was wanted with him, answered the call in person, when he was attacked and beaten by Shields. He was arrested and after a hearing yesterday was held to bail for his appearance at Court, in default of which he was committed to the lock-up until this morning, when, if he does not procure the required bail, he will be sent to jail.

LOCAL POLITICS.

Carters and Draymen.

An adjourned meeting of the carters, draymen and teamsters was held at City Hall, Saturday evening, for the purpose of completing their arrangements for participating in the grand Republican demonstration Thursday, the 24th.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, John W. Haney, Wm. Best officiating as Secretary. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and adopted. The report of the Finance Committee, which was a very flattering one, showing the organization to be in a healthy condition financially, was received.

The Chief Marshal, Mr. John W. Gray, announced the following appointments: Aids—Thos. M'Michael, Jos. Hastings, John W. Haney, W. A. Kiskadden, John Wallace, R. Campbell, James Orr, C. Devellen, Q. Flag Presentation.

A very interesting affair took place at the residence of Colonel W. A. Herron, in the Fourth ward, Saturday evening, at which we had the pleasure of being present. The occasion was the presentation of a beautiful silk regulation flag, by Colonel Herron, to the Fourth ward Grant and Colfax Club. The affair was entirely an impromptu arrangement, and consequently the more pleasant. The Fourth ward Club, accompanied by the Grant Club from the Eleventh ward (which we will take occasion here to say is one of the best clubs, and make the finest appearance in the city,) with a band of music, marched to Colonel Herron's residence for the purpose of serenading him. On arriving they formed in the street in front of the house, and after the band had concluded a patriotic air, Josiah Cohen, Esq., who was present, was called upon by Colonel Herron, and in an eloquent and appropriate address on behalf of the Colonel presented the flag. The band then played the "Star Spangled Banner," after which C. W. Robb, Esq., responded, in behalf of the Club, in a brief but eloquent address. The Club then responded with three cheers, after which the band played "Hail Columbia," when the procession again formed, and, headed by the band, with the flag unfurled to the breeze, marched to their rendezvous.

Colonel Herron is a very enthusiastic Republican, and is working nobly for the cause.

W. B. Negley, Esq., was the next speaker, and after he had discussed the greenback question thoroughly the meeting was favored by a song from the East Liberty Glee Club.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Republicans erected a fine pole at the corner named previous to organizing, the meeting.

Smith & Teorges' band being in attendance, played a patriotic air, after which the Temperanceville Glee Club sang in an excellent manner one of the best campaign songs.

The audience was addressed by Thomas M. Marshall and John M. Kirkpatrick, Esqs., after which the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Grant and Colfax and the State and county ticket.

Tarentum.

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of Tarentum and vicinity was held in that borough Friday evening. The meeting was organized by calling Captain Kipp to the chair and appointing a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was then ably addressed by J. S. Lambie and J. M. Kirkpatrick, Esqs. Mr. Lamber gave his attention to the question of reconstruction, and handled the constitutional amendments in an able manner. Mr. Kirkpatrick spoke for over an hour, and was enthusiastically applauded by his hearers.

There were over six hundred persons present, one hundred of whom were ladies.

A delegation from Natrona, numbering sixty-eight, headed by a brass band; also delegations from Height's station and Harrison township, headed by martial bands. Each delegation carried appropriate transparencies, torches and banners.

Pursuant to call a number of the active Republicans of the Third ward, Allegheny, met in Gerst's Hall, Saturday evening, for the purpose of organizing a campaign marching club, uniformed and equipped. D. L. Smith was called upon to preside, and J. R. Oxley acted as Secretary. The object of the meeting was stated briefly, and a roll was opened, when over one hundred recruits added their signatures. The club went into election for officers, resulting as follows: Captain—D. L. Smith. Lieutenants—Casper Gang, John Horn and Wm. Wettach, first, second and third in the order named. The uniform and equipments for one hundred men were ordered. The style of the uniform will be the same as the Tanners, excepting the leggins. Vice President—John Slacke.

Secretary—Robert Wilson.

The Birmingham Glee Club were present and enlivened the occasion with excellent music.

Demonstration To-Night.

The Grant and Colfax Club of the Thirteenth ward (late Pitt township) have erected a speakers' stand in front of the school-house on Centre avenue, and intend making a grand demonstration this evening.

The flag presented to the Club by Robert Arthurs, Esq., will be unfurled to the breeze and saluted by the proper number of guns.

Major A. M. Brown, W. C. Moreland and John M. Kirkpatrick, Esqs., will be present and address the meeting.

The Grant and Colfax Clubs of the Fourth, Seventh, Eighth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Fourteenth wards, fully equipped, will be present.

The Eleventh Ward Grant Club (old Seventh ward) made its initial parade Saturday night, and attracted much attention. There were upwards of one hundred and twenty men in the ranks, wearing gold bronze caps, and capes trimmed with blue, bearing torches. The Club was preceded by a splendid brass band. The Eleventh ward is up and doing and will be heard from in strong force on Wednesday night and Thursday. The display was highly creditable to the rapidly growing upper ward.

An Invitation.—The Committee of Arrangements of the Carters, Draymen and Wagoners hereby extend an invitation to the following old honorable draymen of Pittsburgh and Allegheny to participate in the coming Republican demonstration on the 24th inst.: Joseph Best, Sam'l Cowley, William Armstrong and John Rutherford. A carriage will be provided for the accommodation of the above named veterans, and they will be assigned a position at the head of the organization.

First Ward.—The Republicans of the First ward held an unusually large meeting at the headquarters of the Grant and Colfax Club of that ward Saturday night. The meeting was called to order by the President of the club, and after the transaction of the regular business able and eloquent addresses were made by W. C. Moreland, Wm. Little and Josiah Cohen, Esqs., after which the meeting adjourned.

Grant Hussars.—There have been seven full companies enlisted for the Grant Hussars numbering as many hundred men. To-night the officers of the various companies will meet at the office of Gen. Wm. Blakely, No. 91 Grant street, for the purpose of electing regimental officers. As this will be the most important meeting of the campaign we trust there will be full attendance of those called.

Eleventh Ward.—The members of the Eleventh ward Grant and Colfax Club will meet to-night for drill at their headquarters, Eleventh ward school house. Punctual attendance is requested, as it is necessary to be up and ready for the grand turn out on Wednesday night.

Eleventh Ward.—The contest for Common Council in the Eleventh ward, between Dr. McCandless and W. C. McCarthy, Esq., was decided Saturday evening in favor of the former by a majority of thirty-four.

Patriotism Under Difficulties.

The Democracy of the Third ward, under the leadership of the "noblest Roman of them all," hied to the woods and chopped down an enormous hickory tree with branches and all, and with much vexatious trouble had it hauled to the city for the fun and glorification of having an old time pole raising. They could think of no place better for its erection than at the corner of Fifth and Grant streets. Thither they hauled it, but the scaffolding about the new spire on St. Paul's prevented their working to an advantage, expecting every minute to have a brick tumble on their devoted heads. They then held conversation and determined to erect the sturdy emblem of the unterrified midway between Grant and Cherry alley, on the Cathedral pavement curb. They took up a few bricks and were making the necessary excavation for the base of the pole when the Trustees of the church made their appearance and threatened terrible things if they would persevere in their labors, as religion and hickory did not well blend together. The faithful fellows pleaded and argued all to no purpose, for the church authorities had taken a determined stand and could not think even for a moment of granting the privilege begged. With wearisome march the pole committee took up their hickory and crossed to the other side of the street and proceeded to make another excavation, but were met by the owner of the premises, who ordered them off in an uncermonious but determined manner. They again lugged their forest burden to the corner of Cherry alley and Fifth street, and sunk their spades there for another attempt. But the fates were against them, for the owner of the house in that locality bade them desist. They did so. With much mortification they carried their pole tenderly up street, purposing to raise it in the neighborhood of the old battery, but sick and tired, their strength gave way, and the proud emblem of their party rolled from their shoulders into the Fifth avenue gutter and there remained prostrate all day long yesterday to haunt good Democrats who happened to pass that way. We ventured to ask one of the committee where they would plant the pole today, and received the very impolite though unstudied answer: "In h—l, sir, where there are no Radicals."

The place to get White Lime, Calcined Plaster, Hydraulic Cement, is at Ecker & Caskey's, 107 First street.

At It Again.

We have had frequent occasion to speak of the doings of Teddy McCarthy, who is now awaiting trial on an indictment for aggravated assault and battery on officer Daniel McMullen, but in no instance have we heard of such brutal conduct as it is alleged he was guilty of Saturday night. Mr. David Wilson appeared at the Mayor's office yesterday morning and made information charging Teddy McCarthy and Sebastian Duffy with aggravated assault and battery. He alleges that he was walking quietly along one of the principal streets in the city Saturday evening, when McCarthy and Duffy, without any provocation, came up behind him and the former struck him on the head with a "boulder," knocking him down, and the latter kicked him. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused, and if the allegation of the prosecutor be true, they will doubtless receive the punishment such conduct deserves.

Preliminary Injunctions Granted.

In the United States District Court, on Saturday, the motion for preliminary injunctions in the cases of H. B. Goodyear's administrator et al. vs. Chester B. Price, John C. Knoll, Marion Chapin, William E. Magill, Jacob A. Rohrer and Jas. M'Abram, was argued by William Bakewell, Jr., Esq., for the complainants. The attorney for respondents, J. R. Butterfield, declined to reply, and the Court granted the injunctions applied for. The parties against whom the injunctions were granted are dentists, and it is claimed have been using vulcanite rubber as base for artificial teeth, which is an infringement on the patent rights of the complainants. The injunction restrains them from using the vulcanite unless by permission of the complainants, and under such conditions as they may prescribe.

Alleged Fraud.

An information was made before Alderman McMasters, Saturday, by Charles Krane, charging Charles Schiffler with fraud. It appears that the prosecutor keeps a boarding house on Liberty street, and that the accused formerly boarded with him. Subsequently he changed his place of boarding, and it is alleged by the prosecutor that Schiffler was indebted to him in the sum of eighteen dollars, and not having the money necessary to liquidate the debt he left an over coat, dress coat and other clothing in charge of the affiant as security for the payment of the debt. A few days after this settlement took place, the accused returned to the house, and the proprietor being absent, he took his clothing and departed, and for this he is charged with fraud. He was arrested and held for a hearing.

At the ever popular and well-known corner dry goods store of Richard Deakers, Fifth avenue and Grant streets, will be found at very low rates a splendid stock of dry goods suitable for fall and winter. Call in and examine the assortment, inquire the prices and thus become reassured that no where else can you purchase to better advantage. Remember the place, corner dry goods house, Grant street and Fifth avenue, opposite Cathedral.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court.

[Before Judge McCandless.]

The case of Robert A. Colville, Adam Cosgrave and William H. Sturgeon, indicted at the May term of Court for distilling without payment of special tax, without giving bonds, and in a forbidden place, was called up. The defendants were tried in June, but the jury failed to agree. Saturday they withdrew the plea of not guilty, and entered that of guilty. Before passing sentence, Judge McCandless addressed them as follows:

"The act of Congress under which you have been tried is severe in its penalty, imposing a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisonment not exceeding two years. On the first trial the jury failed to agree. At the approach of the second you very properly withdrew your plea of not guilty and plead guilty. This law was designed to prevent frauds upon the Internal Revenue of the United States, and protect honest manufacturers in the legitimate pursuit of their business.

"You set up a still in the third story of a wholesale warehouse, located on one of the principal commercial streets of the city of Pittsburgh, and there manufacture whisky, which was conveyed through the premises of one of your number to the purchasers of this contraband article.

"Fortunately for the Government, they had a vigilant Inspector, who arrested you in your criminal proceedings, and brought them to the attention of the Collector and the District Attorney; otherwise your profits would have been large, and to that extent the Government defrauded.

"I have had many cases of a similar character before me here and at Erie and Williamsport; from the mountain regions of this Judicial District, where poor farmers, the descendants of a past age, and wholly unacquainted with modern legislation upon the subject, have set up their stills, and, after the custom of their fathers, made what they considered necessary for the harvest field and home consumption. With all such I have been as lenient as the law would permit, and although the maxim is "that ignorance of the law excuseth no man," these people rarely see the published Acts of Congress, and if they did, in some instances they could not understand them. With greater intelligence, and occupying respectable positions in this community, you have violated the law for gain, and if the Court supposed it would be better vindicated by a longer term of imprisonment, it would be its solemn duty to impose it. There is one count in these indictments demanding a fine of not less than one thousand dollars. Upon that I will suspend sentence, and will proceed to sentence upon the others. Having all plead guilty, you have admitted that the officers of the Government were right in your arrest, and accept the justice of any sentence within the limits of the law which the Court might impose; but, as Congress, by its recent legislation, has removed the great incentive and temptation to fraud, and as no public good would result by detaining you long from your business and families, the sentence of the Court is that you, Wm. H. Sturgeon, pay a fine to the United States of one hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the common jail of the county of Allegheny for and during the term of twenty-four hours;

That you, Robert A. Colville, and you, Adam Cosgrave, each pay a fine to the United States of three hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the common jail of the county of Allegheny for and during the term of ten days; and that each and all of you pay the costs of prosecution, and stand committed until these sentences be complied with.

"You are in the custody of the Marshal."

Court of Quarter Sessions.

[Before Judge Sterrett.]

In the case of Charles Hoffman and Wm. Schimmelfennig, indicted for aggravated assault and battery, in driving a horse and buggy over children in Lawrenceville, the jury found a verdict of guilty.

A number of surety cases were disposed of.

Meeting at West Newton, Pa.—Speech of General Leasure.

[Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.

WEST NEWTON, PA., Sept. 19, 1868.

We have just had a large meeting, composed of men of all parties, to listen to an address from General Leasure, of Newcastle, Pa. The General had been attending the meeting of his old "Roundheads" at Washington, Pa., on the 17th, and some of our citizens brought him here to talk to the soldiers of the vicinity on the issues of the present campaign. Our boys erected a splendid Grant and Colfax pole on Main street, in front of the "Leasure House," kept by the General's brother, and they called on the General for a speech. In a few words he set before them the necessity of starting right in life, and particularly in politics, warning them against the mistake of uniting with any political party declining to its fall on account of its record. The boys received it in good part, and we will profit by the advice.

After dark a stand was erected on the street and about five hundred of our citizens, of both parties, assembled in the open air to hear what a soldier had to say to soldiers on the present issues. A Westmoreland boy himself he had a claim to our attention, and well he rewarded us for getting him here. Many men of all parties had a desire to see the man whom they used to know as a little boy, and who had made so pure a record for himself in connexion with the army of the Union. The General disclaims being a party man in any sense of the word, but when he finds his old friends on one side, and all of his old enemies on the other side, and the old issue once more made, he has no alternative but to act once more with the men concerning whose patriotism and loyalty there can be no two opinions. For nearly two hours he held his audience in breathless silence, except when some ringing sentence procaimed the metal of the old "Roundhead," and brought a corresponding response from the crowd.

I have never seen here, or elsewhere, so attentive an audience, and one better entertained, and when he concluded men of both parties united in approval of the substance of the speech, and the firm, yet kindly, manner of the speaker. It is no disparagement to political speakers to say that Gen. Leasure speaks more directly to our hearts and judgments, and less to our passions and prejudices, than any one we have ever listened to. We could see to-night how it was that he so thoroughly mastered the hearts of his soldiers in the service, for those who were present to-night assure us that, whenever he pleased, he could set them perfectly wild with enthusiasm. We must have him back in this county, for he speaks to make votes, and he does it, and we need votes here.

Body Recovered.

Saturday morning James Miller found the body of a boy floating in the Monongahela river, opposite the mouth of Saw Mill Run. The body was taken ashore and was identified as that of Jacob Schuster, one of the boys who were drowned near the Monongahela suspension bridge, on Tuesday last. It will be remembered that three boys went out into the river in a skiff, with strips of timber for oars. The current was very strong at the time, and the boat was carried against one of the piers of the bridge and capsized, all three of the boys being drowned. The father of young Schuster fully identified the body found this morning. Coroner Clawson held an inquest, and the jury found a verdict of accidental death. The deceased was thirteen years of age.

Eleventh Ward.—The Public School of the Eleventh (old Seventh) ward will commence on Monday, the 21st inst., in the new school house of said ward, when all the teachers elect are requested to be present.

WM. MAYS,
Sec'y Eleventh Ward S. B.

Medical and Surgical Institute.

Dr. E. S. Aborn, whose name must be familiar to all of our readers, and embalmed in the gratitude and best wishes of many of them, he having contributed so much toward the comfort, relief and cure of those afflicted with disease, finding himself incapable of answering the daily increasing demand on his professional services, has established a Medical Institute at No. 134 Smithfield street, over which he will preside. He has surrounded himself with a faculty of skillful and experienced surgeons and physicians, who will devote their exclusive time and attention to the patients who seek out the Institute. This announcement should be hailed with pride and satisfaction by our citizens, for such an Institute, presided over by a physician who enjoys a deservedly high national reputation, and monopolizing the services of several very talented practitioners, will not only reflect credit to us abroad, but will supply a want long felt in the community.

Dr. Aborn has in contemplation in the near future to erect on the beautiful grounds surrounding his summer residence, at Homewood, a beautiful hotel, where the patients of the Institute from abroad will be treated, and at the same time have all the advantages of pure air and delightful country scenery—such potent agencies in the restitution of health. It is needless for us to wish the Institute success, as it has been founded to meet the requirements of the great patronage which has flowed in upon its Principal since his advent into our midst.
